

I use the business to make great people. I don't use people to make a great business. If everyone is moving forward and working together, then the business takes care of itself.

- Ralph Stayer